

SOUTHERN COLORADO FAMILY MEDICINE

Rotations (1 month intervals)	PGY-1	Upper Level Rotations
Orientation Month (July)	1 month	Upper level residents get a combination of rotations in their last 2 years that include: Medical and Surgical Sub-specialties, Away and Rural rotations, Electives and a variety of out-pt specialty clinics. The Alamosa Upper Level Curriculum is a longitudinal learning experience in the different specialities. See the Alamosa website (vwhs.org)
OB / Nursery	4 months
Pediatrics Outpatient	1 month (Core Only)
Internal Medicine (In-Pt)	3 months
PCMH / Practice Management	1 month
Behavioral Health	1 month
Surgery	1 month
Pediatric ER / Ped In-Pt	1 month Core / 2 mos Alamosa Track

Internship is treated as 13 months (due to Orientation). This allows for a smoother transition into second year responsibilities.

Benefits	PGY-1	PGY-2	PGY-3
Salary (comparable to Denver)	$53,548.00	$55,512.00	$57,670.00
Vacation Days (not including holidays)	16 days	17 days	18 days
CME Days	None	5 days	5 days
Expenses Covered by Residency	All Residents get a Laptop to use during their 3 years Courses such as ACLS, ALSO, NRP, PALS provided DEA License paid for in the second year
CME/Book Money Provided	$400.00	$750.00	$1,000.00
Insurance Options	Health, Dental, Eye, Life and Disability Insurance All Available to Residents as Centura Employees

Residency Features / Hospital Features

Hospital Based Rotations at Both Pueblo Hospitals (St Mary Corwin and Parkview)	Hospitalist and FP based Services	Approx. 400 beds Combined	Multiple ICUs and Level 2 Nursery with Neonatology
FP Faculty (Includes SCFM and Private Physicians)	One on One Teaching C-Section, OMT and Colonoscopy Tracks	FP Faculty who do C-Sections, Colonoscopies, Colposcopies	Specialists who like to teach
Community Based	Unopposed for most rotations and minimal to no competition for procedures (esp OB and Surgery)
For the DO Students:	Osteopathic Recognition through the Single Accreditation System, Robust OMT Curriculum
Technology	EMR for both the Clinic and Hospitals	On-Line Access to Schedules, Noon Conferences, Curriculum.... (New Innovations)	Wi-Fi Throughout both Hospitals On-Line Literature Searches